DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

The claimed invention (claims 1-9) is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claimed invention does not fall in the following four categories of patent eligible subject matter recited in 35 U.S.C. 101: process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter. The term “use of sulfonic polystyrene or one of its sulfonate salts” relates to subject that is indeterminate with respect to the four categories listed above and is thus not patent eligible subject matter.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 furthermore because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1794

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-9 provides for the use of sulfonic polystyrene or one of its sulfonate salts, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966). Furthermore, it is not clear if the claims are directed to an article comprising the materials claimed or if this is directed to a process of use.

The examiner takes the position that it is not clear as to whether the claims should be treated as article claims or process claims. As a result, the examiner could not apply art in this office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lofquist (4,083,893), Lawrence (6,578,960), Carlson (2003/0194513), Barcock (2003/0219611), and Kojima (5,165,973).
